Dear Mr. Goode:

The American Medical Political Action Committee was pleased to have participated recently in your election campaign by providing the cost of sponsoring a fundraiser in Charlottesville, Virginia on September 19, 1996.

This participation was reported by AMPAC as a 1996 General contribution to you on our pre-election report (due October 16, 1996) to the Federal Election Commission. You should, therefore, report to the FEC that $454.72 was received from AMPAC in the form of an in-kind contribution for the above services. If there are questions about this, be sure to let me know.

Also, we have included two copies of a receipt which acknowledges this contribution and would appreciate your signing both copies and returning one to us. Please disregard the previous letter and we apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you.

Again, AMPAC was pleased to provide this contribution and is hopeful of your election in November, 1996.

Sincerely,

Kevin Walker
Executive Director and Treasurer

AMPAC is a separate segregated fund established by the AMA. Voluntary political contributions by individuals to AMPAC should be written on personal checks. Funds from corporations cannot be used for contributing and expenditures in Federal elections. Corporate checks will be placed in a separate AMA account for political education and other non-election activities. Contributions are not limited to the suggested amount. Neither AMA nor its constituent state associations will favor or disadvantage anyone based upon the amount or before to make PAC contributions. Voluntary political contributions are subject to limitations of FEC regulations Section 710.1, 710.2 and 710.5 if federal regulations require the notice.

Contributions to AMPAC are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.

Dear Congressman Bliley:

The American Medical Political Action Committee was pleased to have participated recently in your reelection campaign by providing the cost of sponsoring a fundraiser in Richmond, Virginia on September 3, 1996.

This participation was reported by AMPAC as a 1996 General contribution to you on our pre-election report (due October 16, 1996) to the Federal Election Commission. You should, therefore, report to the FEC that $909.44 was received from AMPAC in the form of an in-kind contribution for the above services. If there are questions about this, be sure to let me know.

Also, we have included two copies of a receipt which acknowledges this contribution and would appreciate your signing both copies and returning one to us.

Again, AMPAC was pleased to provide this contribution and is hopeful of your re-election in November, 1996.

Sincerely,

Kevin Walker
